PART 2 – Reading Comprehension (Texts E & F)

TEXT E “The Power of Reading”

Reading is one of the most powerful ways to develop our imagination and empathy.

When we read stories, our brain begins to “live” inside the world of the characters.

Research shows that people who read regularly are better at understanding the emotions of others.

In addition, reading in a foreign language improves vocabulary, grammar, and writing skills.

Although technology offers many forms of entertainment, reading still provides something unique — silence, focus, and the ability to travel anywhere without leaving your chair.

22. According to the text, reading helps people ...

A) become more emotional B) understand others better C) travel more easily D) avoid using technology

23. One benefit of reading in another language is ...

A) better memory B) improved language skills C) less stress D) stronger imagination

24. The author describes reading as ...

A) a form of escape B) a kind of exercise C) a waste of time D) a digital habit

25. Which sentence best summarizes the text?

A) Reading books makes you tired but clever.

B) Reading remains valuable even in a digital world.

- C) Technology will replace books soon.
- D) Foreign-language reading is only for experts.

TEXT F " –A Weekend in the Mountains"

Last weekend, my friends and I went hiking in the Taurus Mountains. We left early on Saturday and reached the campsite by noon. The air was fresh, and the view was breathtaking.

At night, we cooked pasta on a small fire and told stories until midnight.

Unfortunately, on Sunday morning it started to rain heavily, so we had to pack quickly.

Even though we got completely wet, it was one of the best weekends I've ever had.

26. What time did they arrive at the campsite?

- A) Morning B) Noon C) Evening D) Midnight

27. Why did they pack quickly?

- A) They were tired. B) It was raining. C) They were hungry. D) They wanted to swim.

28. Which activity did they not do?

- A) Cook B) Tell stories C) Swim D) Camp overnight

29. How does the writer feel about the weekend?

- A) It was boring. B) It was disappointing. C) It was unforgettable. D) It was dangerous.

PART 3 – Reading: Left-Handedness (Short Version)

Left-handed people make up about ten percent of the world's population.

Scientists believe that being left-handed may be linked to creativity.

Many famous musicians, artists, and scientists have been left-handed.

However, left-handers sometimes face challenges, because most tools are designed for right-handed users.

For example, scissors, desks, and computer mice can be uncomfortable for them.

Despite these difficulties, left-handers often develop strong problem-solving skills and learn to adapt quickly.

30. According to the text, about ...

- A) one third of people are left-handed B) 10% of people are left-handed

C) half the world is left-handed D) most people are left-handed

31. Left-handedness is sometimes connected with ...

A) weakness B) creativity C) sport D) music only

32. Which of the following items is difficult for left-handed people?

A) Books B) Scissors C) Phones D) Shoes

33. Left-handers develop problem-solving skills because ...

A) they are born intelligent B) they play music

C) they must adapt to right-handed tools D) they work harder

34. The overall message of the passage is ...

A) Left-handedness is only a problem.

B) Left-handers should become right-handed.

C) Left-handers can be talented despite challenges.

D) It is better to be right-handed

PART 4 – True / False / Not Given

TEXT G “ –Life in the Digital Age”

People today use technology in almost every area of life. We shop, study, and communicate online.

While this makes life easier, it also changes how we think and behave.

Some scientists say that people now have shorter attention spans because they check their phones too often.

Others believe technology saves time and helps us learn new things faster.

However, everyone agrees that we need balance: we shouldn't spend all day looking at a screen.

35. People use the internet only for shopping. A) True B) False C) Not Given
